HENRY C. PAYNEILL

All Hope of Recovery Abandoned by the Attending Physicians.

LIFE PROLONGED BY STIMULANTS.

After Midnight His Family and Friends Were Summoned to the Patient's Bedside.

Early Tuesday Morning the Postmaster General Rallied, Under Fluids Injected at Midnight, and Spoke to Those About.

Washington, Oct. 4.—The condition of Postmaster General Henry C. Payne, who was stricken with disease of the heart recently, on Monday was weaker than at any previous stage of his illness, save during the worst of his sinking spells, and his death, it is said, might occur at any moment. The most powerful stimulants in greater doses than ever administered at frequent intervals and it would be due to them alone, it is said, if he survives the night. Without them it was admitted he could not live more than a few hours. His pulse at times Monday was barely perceptible. There was a severe sinking spell at noon Monday and another shortly after 4 o'clock Monday afternoon that lasted half an hour. During the succeeding hours the sick man gained a little rest, though he could not sleep long at a time. At 9:30 o'clock Monday night Dr. Magruder issued a bulletin saying that Mr. Payne continued to respond well to the remedies administered, and that there was a slight improvement. Mr. Payne was unconscious most of the time.

At 2 o'clock Private Secretary Whitney announced that all efforts to revive the postmaster general by stimulants had been abandoned. At that hour Mr. Payne was barely alive and all hope had been abandoned.

At 2:35 it was announced that the postmaster general had rallied suddenly and exclaimed, "Hello!" to those about him. Milk then was given him to drink.

Dr. Magruder asked the postmaster general how he was feeling, and he replied "First rate." Dr. Magruder said that Mr. Payne's respiration was better and more regular than it has been in the past 24 hours.

At 3:45 the postmaster general was resting easily, and seemed somewhat better. His breathing and pulse are better than for some days. The family again retired to their rooms.

THE LATE SENATOR HOAR.

Funeral Services Were Held at Worcester, Mass., Monday.

Worcester, Mass., Sept. 30.—George Frisbie Hoar, senior senator from Massachusetts, died at his home in this city at 1:35 o'clock Friday morning. The end followed a period of unconsciousness that had continued since early Tuesday and came so gently that only the attending physicians were aware of the exact moment of dissolution.

There were present at the bedside when death came the senator's son, Gen. Rockwood Hoar; his daughter, Mary Hoar, and Dr. Warren R. Gilman, who for weeks has been in almost constant attendance upon the senator.

Funeral services for United States Senator George Frisbie Hoar were held here Monday. In the presence of many persons representing societies and associations, the city of Worcester, the commonwealth of Massachusetts and the congress of the United States, the favorite hymns of the dead statesman were sung, the 90th Psalm was read, and two elegiac couplets were read, eulogizing the man who had been their friend for many years.

Public and private business in the city was suspended. Buildings were draped and pictures of Senator Hoar were generally displayed with symbols of mourning in the windows. Members of the volunteer militia who assisted in doing police duty, provided the only touch of formal display.

Thirty-five thousand people passed through the city hall and viewed the body of Senator George F. Hoar between 4:30 and 9:30 Monday night. The four hours allotted for this ceremony proved inadequate and an extension of an hour was made. Fifty thousand people massed in front of city hall and addressed ways and means of funeral services were noted.

Police ambulances carried 19 people from the crush to their homes and others were cared for in city hall. When the doors of the city hall were closed at 6 o'clock Monday night Messrs. Deane and Earle, who will remain with the body constantly until it is placed in the grave Tuesday at Concord, escorted it to an undertaker's establishment.

At 2:35 it was announced that the postmaster general had rallied suddenly and exclaimed, "Hello!" to those about him. Milk then was given him to drink.

Dr. Magruder asked the postmaster general how he was feeling, and he replied "First rate." Dr. Magruder said that Mr. Payne's respiration was better and more regular than it has been in the past 24 hours.

A GENEROUS OFFER FROM LOUISVILLE, KY.

An Entire Louisville Family Poisoned By Eating Toadstools.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 4.—The entire family of Eugene Napier, six members in all, of 218 26th street, were poisoned, and perhaps fatally, by eating toadstools which they had mistaken for mushrooms. Those made ill were Mrs. Rebecca Napier, seriously; Mrs. Lucinda Fowler, probably fatally; Thomas Napier, 17, seriously; Gertrude, 8, seriously; George, 10, slightly; Henry, 24, slightly.

But for the heroic efforts of Mrs. Napier, the mother, who threw all thought of her own safety to the winds, three of her children would have died.

When she was violently ill Mrs. Napier pulled herself from the lethargy into which she had fallen and prepared a simple emetic of salt water, which temporarily stayed the effect of the poison until a physician arrived.

The toadstools were picked by Thos. Napier Sunday morning in an old lot in High street, between 57th and 28th streets.

The toadstools in mushrooms, but is interspersed with toadstools.

INSTANTLY KILLED.

His Aunt Was Taken For a Ghost By Tisdale and He Died.

Richmond, Ky., Oct. 1.—Mrs. Eliza Foster was accidentally killed by her nephew, Walter Tisdale, with whom she made her home at White's Station. Mrs. Foster arose Thursday night at 11 o'clock and went out into the yard to get some night garments, and making a ghostly figure in the moonlight, frightened Tisdale's wife, who, waking, noticed some one in the yard.

His wife's screams awoke Tisdale, who also saw Mrs. Foster's figure advancing toward the house, and he quickly grabbed his shotgun although he ordered Mrs. Foster to halt, she, doubtless failing to hear or understand him, steadily came forward, whereupon Tisdale raised his gun and fired, killing his aunt instantly. Tisdale is nearly distraught.

SHOT FROM AMBUSH.

A Posse Starts to the Scene of the Shooting.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 4.—A telephone message received here says that Rich Cottrell was shot from an ambush Monday morning on Big creek, four miles below Hazard, and is dying. He was with his wife and two brothers-in-law when picked off by some one concealed along the roadside. He fell on the exact spot where Joe Eversole, of Frenchburg, was shot and killed. A posse has gone to the scene. The wounded man is a resident of Jackson.

Bowling Gets Life Sentence.

Booneville, Ky., Oct. 4.—Daniel Bowling, of Clay county, was convicted of the murder of James Gilus Barnett, of Laurel county, and given a life sentence in the state penitentiary. Barnett was a boss in the state woods at D. C. Edwards' mill, in Owsley county.

Love-Sick Youth Suicides.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 4.—Despondent because his sweetheart had rejected his affections, Simeon Clemmons, 20, grandson of Rankin Clemmons, one of the wealthiest men in Central Kentucky, committed suicide by blowing off the top of his head with a shotgun.

The Case Went Over.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 1.—Louis Mitchell, charged with the attempted poisoning of the Mulligan family here last Saturday, was arraigned before Magistrate Oldham Friday morning, and on motion of the commonwealth the case was passed until next Friday.

Two Tragedies at Paducah.

Paducah, Ky., Oct. 3.—Thomas Riley was fatally assaulted and robbed but could not give an account of it after reviving. About the same time Tom Murray, special watchman for the Illinois Central, shot and dangerously wounded Joe Green, his friend. Green was trying to get Murray to go home.

A POINT IN LAW.

Railway Employe Falling Asleep on Duty No Excuse For An Accident.

Philadelphia, Oct. 4.—Judge Swartz, in the Montgomery county court at Norristown, Monday refused to affirm a point in law submitted by an attorney that when a railway employe falls asleep from physical weakness, from illness or from weariness from long hours or steady employment, and an accident occurs, the employe should be acquitted. In refusing to affirm it, Judge Swartz held that no man had a right to work on a railroad unless in full physical condition, and that if he fell asleep, no matter what cause, he should discontinue work even though he should lose his position, rather than jeopardize human life by continuing on duty.

ARTILLERY FIGHTS.

They Are Adding to the Horrors of the Situation at Port Arthur.

THE RUSSIANS MADE A SORTIE.

A Desperate Attack Was Made Upon the Kanagawa Regiment and It Was Practically Annihilated.

Only One Non-Commissioned Officer and 11 Soldiers Remained Alive Out of the 4,000 Who Went Into the Engagement.

Mukden, Oct. 1.—A great change in the situation here has occurred. The Japanese now appear anxious to act on the defensive, and have fortified a position northwest of the Yentai mines. According to the best estimates obtainable, the Japanese army confronting Gen. Kuropatkin comprises a grand total of 180 battalions. Allowing 800 men to a battalion there are 144,000 infantry. In addition there are 6,300 cavalry and 638 guns. The distribution of the Japanese forces is as follows: One division at Benitsupute, two divisions at the Yentai mines, two divisions on the railway a little north of Liao Yang, one division westward near Hiamensend and one division at Sandepu.

Tokio, Oct. 3.—The Russians are reported to be desperately endeavoring to retake their lost positions, including Fort Kuropatkin, in the hope of restoring the water supply of Port Arthur. They are said to have repeatedly assaulted the Japanese after shelling from neighboring forts and batteries. The Japanese continue to hold the positions. Both sides are said to have suffered severely. The newly mounted heavy Japanese guns are said to command the entire harbor. The position of the remnant of the Russian Port Arthur fleet is said to be precarious and it is believed the vessels must soon emerge or be destroyed.

London, Oct. 4.—The Daily Telegraph's Nagasaki correspondent, writing under date of September 25, says:

"Terrible artillery conflicts are adding to the horrors of the situation at Port Arthur. On September 22 and 23 the Russians made sorties against positions held by the Kanagawa regiment, and desperate fighting ensued. The Japanese force was practically annihilated, only one non-commissioned officer and 11 men remaining alive out of the 4,000 who went into the engagement."

"The Japanese tunnel into Port Arthur was completed on September 24 and was immediately used. The result is unknown."

Mukden, Oct. 4.—The situation here is unchanged. The Japanese are active west of Mukden. The Russian cavalry forces are strong in that direction, their horses are in splendid condition and the roads are good. The Japanese are also active eastward and have been reinforced.

London, Oct. 4.—Explaining the details of the new Japanese military regulations, the Times correspondent at Tokio says it will ultimately make the total war strength of the army exceed 1,000,000.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 4.—The war commission adjourned Monday night without issuing further news from the front. A press dispatch from Mukden, filed there at 10:20 o'clock Monday night, states that all is quiet there. There is intense interest here in developments at Mukden, but the public and apparently the authorities also are utterly in the dark as to what is transpiring. The little news received from Port Arthur comes from abroad, but little is satisfactory, inasmuch as it records a further repulse of the Japanese attacks.

Philadelphia, Oct. 4.—Judge Swartz, in the Montgomery county court at Norristown, Monday refused to affirm a point in law submitted by an attorney that when a railway employe falls asleep from physical weakness, from illness or from weariness from long hours or steady employment, and an accident occurs, the employe should be acquitted. In refusing to affirm it, Judge Swartz held that no man had a right to work on a railroad unless in full physical condition, and that if he fell asleep, no matter what cause, he should discontinue work even though he should lose his position, rather than jeopardize human life by continuing on duty.

Geronimo Leaves For Home.

St. Louis, Oct. 4.—Geronimo, chief of the Apache Indians, departed for his home at Fort Sill, Okla., Monday. Geronimo has been at the World's fair since June and recently asked permission to return home, saying he was homesick.

Maj. Baden Powell in St. Louis.

St. Louis, Oct. 4.—Maj. Baden Powell, of the British army, brother of Gen. Baden Powell, who marched to the relief of Ladysmith, arrived at the World's fair with his kites, which he is to fly October 17 and 18.

Girl Charged With Wrecking a Train.

Ronoke, Va., Oct. 4.—Detectives arrested Gussie Loving, a ten-year-old white girl, at her home near Dunlow, W. Va., charged with wrecking a Norfolk & Western passenger train at that point Sunday. She confessed.

Congressman Kehoe's record as a representative of the whole people has been so satisfactory since his former race that nobody in this district except his opponent can be very anxious for a change. He gives the most careful attention to every matter brought before him by his constituents, regardless of their creed or position. No district in the country has a more faithful, intelligent Representative than the Ninth District of Kentucky. He is practical and popular and gets results on almost every proposition undertaken by him. Let's keep him!

City Council.

The City Council held its regular monthly meeting last Tuesday evening. Routine business was transacted, among which the allowance of several claims. Outside of this there was not much done. The levy for 1905, for which assessment is now being made, was laid at seventy-five cents on each one hundred dollars worth of property. This is a raise of fifty percent over the levy of '94. It was agreed to pay the Water Works Company $750 per annum for water to be used in case of fire and for sprinkling the streets. For this latter purpose the Company is to put in about thirty sprinkling hydrants without cost to the city, to be placed at various points along the course of the mains. Without good hose and a good deal of it, and this, we suppose, to be bought by the city, the water works system is practically without value as a defense against fire. We have not heard of any steps being taken looking to the providing in any manner for this hose. There must also be a hose carriage and a company to use it. In fact, there is much to do and much to provide before Louisa can successfully fight a fire.

Attempted Jail Delivery.

John Edwards, confined in the County Jail on a charge of perjury, made a break for liberty last Friday night about eight o'clock, but he is still in duance, and that he is not food for worms is probably on account of "Dolly" Hinkle's bad aim. Edwards, George Sagraves and a man named Sparks were in the upper cells, or in the day walk, and had not yet been locked up for the night. About the hour mentioned Edwards knocked on the inner door and called for water. Dolly and Al. Hays responded to the call, and as they were about to open the outer door Edwards made a break for the outside. He had a club about two feet long, made from the oak handle of a mop which had been left in the walk. With this he aimed a blow at Hinkle, who in response aimed a "blow" at him, but the bullet flew wide of the mark. It was enough, however, to stop the man with the stick and any who might have intended to follow him. Edwards hid in some way out a link in the chain which fastens the inner door and was all ready for escape provided he could get past the jailer. They are now occupying quarters on the lower floor, from which escape will be much more difficult.

Cards have been received in Louisa announcing the approaching marriage of Miss Ole Fitzpatrick, of Prestonsburg, to Mr. Legon, a member of the engineer corps now at work on the extension of the C. & O. Miss Fitzpatrick, who has relatives here and who is very pretty and popular girl, is the daughter of Hiram Fitzpatrick, one of the most prominent men in Floyd county. Mr. Legon is a worthy young gentleman and promising engineer. This paper proffers its congratulations.

A letter from Bishop Burton, of the Episcopal Church, to Dr. G. W. Wooten, Sec. and Treas. of the Mission in Louisa, announces the appointment of the Rev. Walter S. Smith to the charge of Calvary Church, Ashland, and the Mission here. Mr. Smith has a fine reputation as a man and minister, and will no doubt be warmly greeted by his Church and the public. Due notice of his first service here will be given.

A CORRECTION.

In some unaccountable manner M. G. Thompson was announced in the News last week, as a candidate for jailer, when it should have been sheriff. Mr. Thompson is one of the best men in our county. He lives on Little Blaine, and has been a deputy sheriff for some time. He is known as a conscientious, straightforward man and is quite popular with his acquaintances.

Miss Mattie Wallace has resigned her position as first assistant teacher in the public school and Mrs. C. J. Carey has been promoted to fill the vacancy. Miss Mabel Butler, a pupil in the school, is acting as supply until another teacher can be procured. Miss Wallace will go to Logan county, W. Va., to accept a position there as teacher.

The friends of the Rev. A. Leo Barrett, well known in this vicinity, will regret to learn that his health is so poor that his death may occur at any time. He is suffering from a complete breakdown of his nervous system. His home is at Bartonsville, W. Va.

Dr. Harry Wood, of New Amsterdam, N. Y., is in Louisa visiting the family of his father-in-law, Col. Northrup. When he returns to his home he will be accompanied by Mrs. Wood and children, who have been here all the summer.

Dr. Jenks is now occupying his new quarters over Gault Bros. store in the new Bank Block. He has a large, well-lighted operating room and a convenient laboratory. See his sign at the entrance down stairs.

Mr. Shipman, Sr., has gone to Lexington for a visit to relatives. While there he will, incidentally, of course, take a peep at the ponies.

Fiscal Court.

Fiscal Court began Monday and will adjourn tomorrow. All the Magistrates are present and Judge Vinson presiding. The first day was taken up with the examination of some claims, mostly for pauper support, and the discussion of the proposition to put a steel bridge across Bear creek at Buchanan. There was a good deal said, pro and con, but it was decided to adopt the plan for a steel bridge. The bid of the Champion Bridge Company was accepted at $2890. A. F. Hatten was made Special Commissioner to attend to the construction.

On Wednesday T. S. Thompson presented a claim for the collection of taxes due Lawrence county on the franchise owned by the C. & O. Railway. It will be remembered that for a long time it was thought that such franchises were not taxable and were notified by the various railroads in the State. But the higher courts have held that they could be taxed, and when Mr. Thompson was County Attorney he began the work of attempting to get what was coming to this county. The sum was $7255.68. Some very good lawyers thought it would not and could not be collected, but Thompson persevered until the money was collected by him and paid into the county treasury. In many counties the attorneys were paid ten per cent, and in some as high as twenty per cent was paid for the collection. After a great deal of debate Mr. Thompson was allowed five hundred dollars, he to pay all fees and cost of collection.

The Cat's Fork Tragedy.

John Ledman, who surrendered himself into custody, and who was charged with the murder of Buck Daniels at Cat's Fork, on Cat's Fork, of Blaine, some weeks ago, had an examining trial here Monday and was discharged. The testimony showed conclusively that he was acting as peace-maker in what was an attempt on the part of Daniels to stab or cut someone else, and that Daniels turned in a fury upon Ledman, trying in every way to use his knife as his only weapon of defense. John Daniels, charged with assaulting Lindsey Webb, was held to bail in the sum of three hundred dollars, in default of which he was committed to jail to await the action of the October Grand Jury.

It is claimed that some interesting developments will be made at the next term of the Circuit Court, developments growing out of the recent whiskey election held on Twin Branch. It will perhaps be shown that a conspiracy was formed by Buck Daniels and his nephew, John Daniels, together with others, to do serious bodily injury to Lindsey Webb, possibly to kill him. This is a much graver offense than assault and if the parties are jointly indicted they are thus prevented from testifying for one another. The next term of the Lawrence Circuit Court promises to be quite an interesting term, and lest it might be forgotten the News again tells the date: The fourth Monday, October 24th.

Water Mains All Laid.

So far as present intentions are concerned all the water mains are now down and all the fire plugs are in. The water is let in every day, as it is by this means alone that leaks can be found. There are several of these, but this was to be expected. There are no leaks in the pipe sections, only in the joints. It is said that the reservoir is 300 feet long, 90 feet wide and 10 feet high. A reservoir of this size will hold when full nearly two and one-half million gallons. With this amount of water, Louisa would be amply supplied for any uses whatever.

Death of Dr. Thomas Prichard.

The many friends and relatives in Louisa were greatly shocked Wednesday afternoon by the reception of the news that Dr. Thomas Prichard, of Huntington, was dead of blood poisoning. He hurt his leg some time ago, and quite recently he underwent an operation for relief. The discovery was then made that the leg had become infected, and from this he died Wednesday. Funeral services were held in Huntington yesterday and the body was then taken to Paris, Ky., where interment was made. Paris was the home of Dr. Prichard's wife, and he had recently bought the home place. Hence the burial there.

Dr. Prichard was the oldest child of Jack and Jane Prichard and was born in Boyd county about 45 years ago. His mother was a sister of Mrs. Ellen Waldeck and Mrs. Wm. Carey. He attended the old Masonic Academy in this place and was a very bright boy. He studied medicine, and after graduation settled in Huntington, where he amassed a fortune by his successful practice, becoming one of the most prominent physicians in West Virginia. He married Miss Anna Fretwell, of Paris, and they had two children, both boys, the older being about fourteen years of age. Dr. Prichard's death is a distinct loss to the community in which he had lived so long, and will be deeply regretted by all who knew him.

Tuesday's Registration.

The first registration of voters ever made in Louisa occurred last Tuesday. The "new-fangled thing to keep Republicans from voting" one man foolishly expressed it, worked very well; not in "keeping Republicans from voting", but in calling out a goodly number of voters and passing off quietly and without hitch. The total registry was 328, which is very nearly the voting strength of the city. Of this number Lower Louisa cast 162 and Upper Louisa 66. In the upper precinct nearly all the voters declared their party affiliation, while in the lower voting place these declarations were not so general. Voters who refused or neglected to register lose their votes in November. Those who were sick or unavoidably absent may, upon application to the County Clerk and making proper oath and paying fifty cents, get a certificate from him entitling them, if otherwise qualified, to vote. Those who lose their certificates must do the same thing.

About Your Broom Corn.

It is said that a considerable amount of broom corn has been raised in Lawrence county this year and some of it has already been brought to the Louisa Broom Factory. This firm makes it up in 25c quality of brooms at half that price, or will purchase the corn. But the seed must be stripped off of all corn before brought in.

Rev. Williams, pastor of the M. E. Church South, was called to Parkersburg Thursday by the illness of his family and will probably not get back here in time for services next Sunday. His family will move here as soon as their health will permit.

We are glad to learn that Rev. F. P. Fred F. Shannon, of this place, has been elected pastor of a large church in Brooklyn, N. Y. The salary is $2000 and the work is very important. It is a very rare case when we see a minister of his age selected for a station of this size.

REV. O. F. WILLIAMS.

This gentleman, who was appointed by the recent Conference at Fairmont, W. Va., to the pastorate of the Southern Methodist Church here held his first services here last Sunday morning and night. On both occasions he preached to large audiences, and he has made a most favorable impression on those who heard him. For his introductory sermon—the hardest sort of one to preach, it seems to us—Mr. Williams took "Hope" for his subject—the "Anchor Within the Veil, Both Sure and Steadfast." True as is the subject, Mr. Williams succeeded in arousing the attention of his congregation and holding it to the end of what all who heard it unite in saying was a most excellent discourse. His theme needed no argument and was presented to his audience simply as that element or quality without which man would be indeed miserable. Mr. Williams' figure of the Anchor of Hope, the Cable of Faith and the Haven of a Blessed Immortality, was presented in simple yet eloquent language.

Mr. Williams is an earnest preacher, a genial, likable man, and seems to have the elements of a good pastor. The News welcomes him to Louisa.

THE ISTHMIAN CANAL.

About 12,000 Laborers, Half of Whom Are Skilled, Are at Work.

Chicago, Oct. 1.—John F. Wallace, chief engineer of the Panama canal, delivered an address on "The Isthmian Canal" at a banquet given him here Friday night by 400 members of the Illinois Manufacturers' association at the Auditorium hotel.

Mr. Wallace said, in part: "The work before us is to determine the most practical plan and whether the canal is to be on the level of the sea or above. Estimates on a canal 50 feet above the sea level have been placed at $144,000,000 for construction work, $40,000,000 to France and $10,000,000 to the Panama government. On my arrival in Panama three months ago I placed eight parties in the field for exploration purposes. We were to choose the plans providing for 90 feet above the sea level a number of dams would be necessary. After considerable investigation we found that so far as the canal is concerned, the results would be better and the canal could at any time be changed. As yet it has not been definitely decided which form of canal will be accepted, as the canal commission has not received the report of my investigations.

"Nothing serious is expected from the labor problem, as has been reported. About 12,000 laborers, half of whom are skilled workmen, are at work at present. While the efficiency of their work is not as great as can be secured, still it is adapted to the climate, as the laborers of the canal are almost unobtainable to outsiders because of their poor sanitary conditions."
